Number of available seats will depend on the information provided by the participants. In this way, we strongly recommend to inform the Organizing Committee on your arrival time before September 13 to ensure you will have a reserved seat. The list of transfer will be finalized by September 13.

Taxi

The best option to get from Vladivostok airport (<http://vvo.aero/en>) to the FEFU Campus is by getting a taxi. FEFU campus address is: 10 Ajax Bay, Russky Island, Vladivostok. The travel time is about 1 hour and the average price is around 1500-2000 RUR \approx 20-30 EUR.

IMPORTANT: Payment by cash is only accepted.

You can order a taxi at Taxi service desk in the airport.

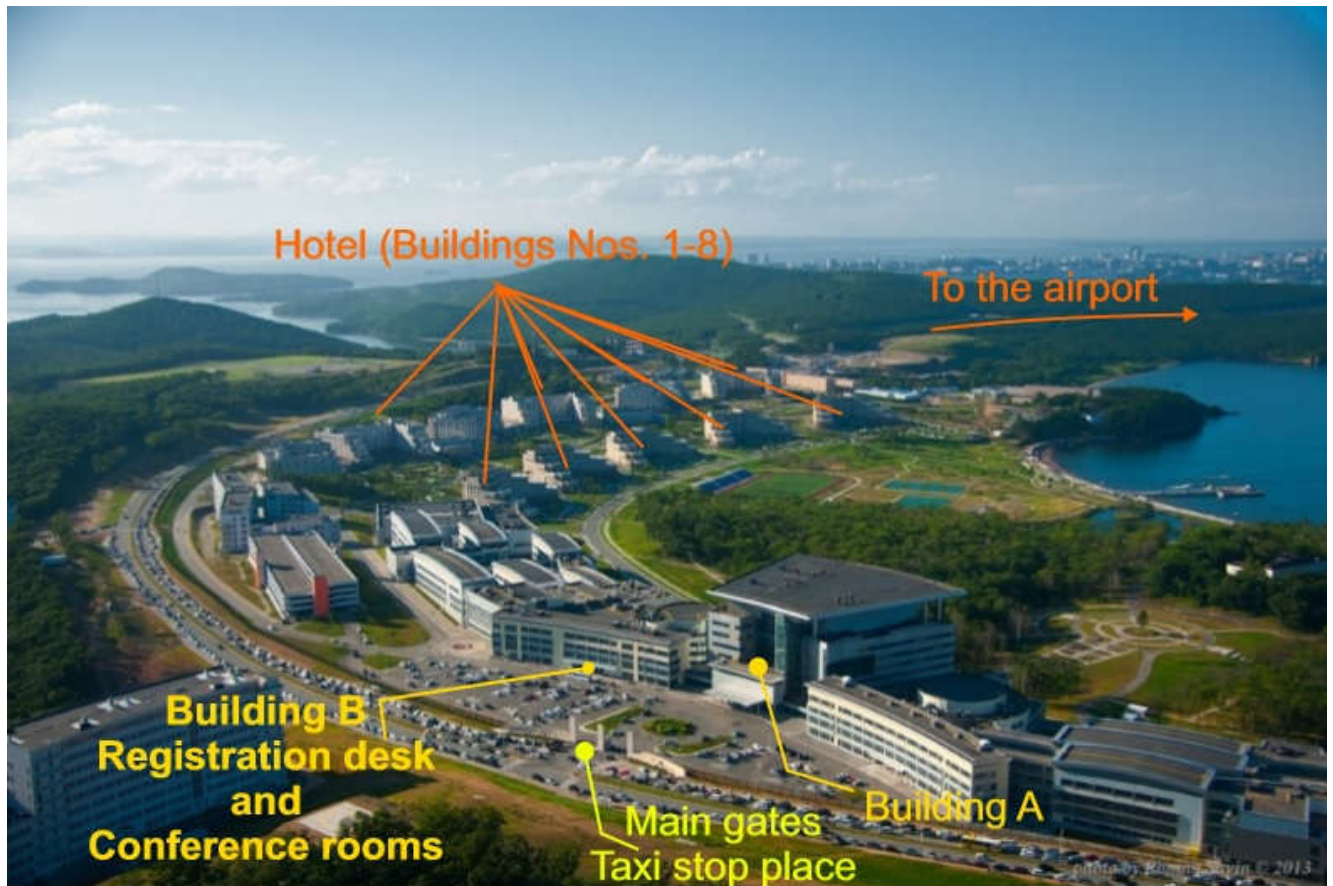

The taxi services in Vladivostok airport are provided by «PrimAutoLine» Company. The taxi dispatcher counter is located in the center of the Terminal in front of the escalator. On request, account/report documents can be provided for the business travelers.

Call Taxi: (423) 244-44-44; 292-25-55; (908) 992-25-55

When ordering a taxi, please note that the cars cannot enter the FEFU campus territory and will stop at the main gates. You can reach the hotels by walk or by FEFU internal buses following circular route through the Campus territory. The bus stops directly near the main FEFU building and near each hotel building. Buses are free of charge and arrive each 15 minutes.

On-line service “Yandex.Taxi” is also available in Vladivostok. You can download corresponding applications for your smartphone.

Venue

METANANO'17 conference will be held on Russky Island, which is in 15 minutes from Vladivostok City and 60 minutes from the airport by car.

The territory of Campus consists of beautiful beach and garden, football field, tennis, basketball and volleyball courts, as well as swimming pool.

Registration

Registration desk will be working since 17:00 of September 17th and during September 18th in the Building B located near the main gates.

Halls

METANANO conference will be held in the Building B of FEFU University. Information on additional room B545 will be provided on the Registration desk.
